

Preparing for an interview

- Research the company.
- Understand what the position you are applying for entails.
- Think about what qualities make you suited to the job.
- Read through your CV/application form.
- Prepare questions to ask at the end of the interview.
- Plan where you are going and how you are going to get there.